Program Information

September 11th, 2024

Orange County CSI Chapter

Program: Critical Insights for Design: Public & Private Sector Safety and Security Considerations

Panel: Richard Podkowski, Chief Security Expert & former Special Agent with the US Secret Service & former global security with Altria Group

Eric Moore, Consultant, Homeland Security/US Secret Service Regional Security Specialist & former Federal Protective Service

John Yip, Technical Security Expert with US Secret Service

Traci Shirachi, Aplomb Security Group CEO & former PwC Director

Cory Chhiap, Aplomb Security Group COO & former US Senior Special Agent of US Secret Service

Join us for an evening of panelists from Homeland Security, US Secret Service and Aplomb Security Group. This leadership team is in Southern California and has experts with over 30+ years of experience in Homeland Security and the US Secret Service to discuss how to approach a rapidly changing landscape of safety and security standards for public and private sector projects.

Attendees will learn about current trends and regulatory updates in safety and security that impact design considerations and understand when to bring in a security and safety expert for planning and design. The panelists will answer questions about key considerations for selecting appropriate security products for new builds and retrofit projects and cover unique security considerations for the sector including outlining criteria for product selection.
